While this does not apply to most of our Campers, and we sincerely appreciate that, we need you to acknowledge the fact that if you are habitually delinquent in making your monthly payments during the 2018 season, you will need to pay cash in full by the August 2018 deadline date if you plan to remain camping with us for the 2019 season. Once you have been placed onto this “cash-in-full” status, you will remain on this status for as long as you camp with us.

You will be notified by email if we feel you have become habitually delinquent; but, generally, if you miss two consecutive payments, you will be considered habitually delinquent.
